

A nationally recognized healthcare consulting firm specializing in post-acute care revenue-cycle management, regulations and market analytics is seeking an ambitious, full-time accountant for an analyst position.

Responsibilities will include the following:

- Assembles financial models to assist in investment and financial analysis.
- Conducts industry research and keeps abreast of industry changes.
- Creates Market Assessments, analyses of public and proprietary data for dissemination to both a general and industry specific audience.
- Assesses financial performance for clients and management.
- Compiles advisory reports based on financial statements and analysis.
- Assist with preparation of annual cost reports for Skilled Nursing Facilities; and
- Protects organization's value by keeping information confidential.

Candidates should possess the following attributes:

- Accounting Major with 1-3 years' experience. New graduates welcome to apply.
- Good understanding of accounting and financial reporting principles and practices
- Skilled Nursing, Healthcare Reimbursement or Public Policy experience a plus, but not required.
- Critical thinker with the ability to make decisions based on reasonable and timely analysis.
- Ability to understand and evaluate risks and risk mitigation strategies.
- Proficient in MS office and comfortable with various software.
- Experience in the creation of budgets and pro-forma financial statements.
- Able to work well with senior executives and team members.
- Attention to detail, highly focused, strong work ethic and super organized; and
- Strong business communication and writing skills.

Compensation is commensurate with experience. Excellent opportunities for professional development and growth within the firm.